GIRARD-GREER

A pretty spring wedding took place in Irma United Church on Monday, May 12th at 2:00 p.m. when Bertha Mary daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Greer of Irma, became the bride of Lucien Paul Girard of Wainwright. Rev. H. W. Inglis read the marriage rites before an altar banked with spring flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a powder blue crepe afternoon dress with sequin trim with white accessories and wore a corsage of American Beauty roses.

Mr. George Girard of Wainwright acted as best man for his brother.

Mrs. H. W. Inglis of Irma supplied the wedding music.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Greer chose a navy blue sheer afternoon frock with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations and a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception to a few close friends and relatives was held later in the dining room of the Wainwright Hotel. The table was centred by a three tiered wedding cake and decorated with spring flowers.

The newlyweds entertained their friends at a wedding dinner in Irma the same evening and later left on a wedding trip to Edmonton. For travelling the bride chose a white wool dress topped by a blue shorty coat and white accessories.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Greer of Hamilton, Ont. and a large number of friends from Wainwright where Mr. and Mrs. Girard will make their home.

Everett Ward performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a rose crepe afternoon frock with navy blue accessories and a corsage of blue iris, roses, pink sweet peas and forget-me-nots.

After the ceremony a reception for the immediate families was held at the home of the bridegroom's mother, where the bride's table was centred with a tiered wedding cake.

Later the couple left for a honeymoon by motor to the United States, the bride travelling in a beige suit with green and white check blouse and matching hat. They will make their home in Edmonton.

TRUCK PLATES ON FRONT OF VEHICLE

Farmers and other truck drivers are advised that their license plates go on the front of the truck. The Highway Traffic Board regulations say definitely that truck number plates must be carried on the front of the vehicle, and that the number must be painted on the rear of the vehicle.

The license certificate must also be framed in the cab of the vehicle so that it can be inspected at any time.

Passenger car license plates go on the rear of the car.

NOTES FROM NATIONAL BARLEY CONTEST

Anxious that contestants avoid last year's mistakes, the general committee of the $25,000 National Barley Contest, sponsored by the brewing and malting industries of Canada, has called attention of prospective entrants to "Hints on Growing Mating Barley", printed in the booklet of regulations. In summary they are:

Use Pure Seed—of recommended varieties. Plant a seed plant on every farm. Registered and certified seed are the purest obtainable and free from weed seeds, disease and other grains.

Treat Seed—using Ceresan or other equally effective mercuric dust. Sow Shallow—Sow no deeper than necessary to get seed into moist soil.

Sow Early—But if the land is weedy, one crop of weeds should be destroyed before seeding barley.

Rate of Seeding—Seeding about 1½ bushels per acre gives the best sample for malting in the areas most suitable to this crop.

Girls' Softball

The Irma girls played their first game on Wednesday May 7, when they met the Wainwright girls and defeated them by a score of 18-15. This game was played in Irma, but despite the good weather only a few people attended.

On Friday, May 9, Irma motored to Edgerton where they won by a 10-9 score. This gave the Irma team a total of four points.

Irma again visited Wainwright on Wednesday May 14, where they defeated the Chauvin girls 32-17. This win put the Irma team at the top of the league with a total of six points.

Only one more home game is left for the Irma team, the date of which is unknown at present. When this game comes along get out and give the girls some support. They deserve it.

REPLACEABLE COLLARS

A Yorkshire firm is introducing to trade buyers at the British Industries Fair (May 5th to May 16th) a spare-collar shirt or blouse the collar which can easily be replaced by a new one as soon as the original collar becomes worn-out. In these new shirts and blouses, a loop has been inserted at the back under the collar. By pulling the loop the worn collar detaches itself from the garment, revealing a grooved neck-band. The new collar simply needs to be inserted in the groove, tucked in position, and sewn up with a single seam.

Canada's Foreign Trade

FOREIGN TRADE IS AN IMPORTANT ELEMENT in the economic structure of any nation and it is closely connected with the progress and prosperity of the people. The story of Canada's foreign trade since 1939 has been an encouraging one. Before the outbreak of war in 1939, the Dominion's external commodity trade was estimated at $1,500,000,000. From that time on it rose steadily until in the years 1944 and 1945 it exceeded $5,000,000,000. Canadian exports at that time included large shipments of war materials. In 1946, when these were no longer required abroad, the volume of trade dropped to $4,000,000,000, which still shows a very substantial increase over the pre-war figures.

Has Surpluses To Sell Abroad

While the population remains at the present level, Canada will always have surpluses, including products of her farms, forests and fisheries for export to foreign countries, and we know only too well that our prosperity depends to a large extent on the demands which other countries make for these goods which we have to sell. Since 1939 Canadian export trade has increased from a total of $800,000,000 in 1939 to $2,300,000,000 in the first post-war year, 1946. The peak was reached in 1944 and 1945, when shipments of war materials and other goods to foreign countries amounted to $3,500,000,000. Imports have also advanced steadily, but less spectacularly, having increased from $65,000,000 in 1939 to nearly $2,000,000,000 in 1946.

Much Progress Has Been Made

The general rise in Canada's foreign trade, in respect to both imports and exports, is an indication that phenomenal progress has been made since the pre-war years. Comparison of the volume of trade in 1939, the last year before the war, with the volume in 1946, the first post-war year, reveals an increase of some $2,500,000,000. Experts are of the opinion that the figure for 1947 will likely be higher than that for 1946. Newsprint, wheat and wheat flour headed the list of Canadian exports for 1946, and Great Britain, the United States and France were our biggest customers. However, a notable increase was made in shipments to Latin America, twenty countries there having purchased agricultural products and manufactured goods from us last year. Much of the growth of Canada's export trade has been due to the war and to the great need in Europe for food and materials for rehabilitation. However, officials are of the opinion that there is no immediate prospect of a recession in foreign trade, and it is to be hoped that we may be able to retain the present volume, which has such an important effect on the progress and prosperity of this country.

MOSCOW GUARD CHANGES — Many major problems were left unsolved when the foreign ministers' conference closed in Moscow recently. Here is the ceremonious changing of guard.

FUNNY And OTHERWISE

They were walking arm and arm. "Darling," she said coyly, "which do you like better, a homely woman with great intelligence or a pretty girl without brains?" "Honestly, sweet," he replied, "I prefer you to either."

The six-year-old her apparent returned home dejectedly from his first day at school. "Ain't goin' to that ole school tomorrow," he muttered.

"And why not?" asked his mother. "Well," the youngster replied, "I can't read and I can't write, and they won't let me talk—so what's the use?"

The conceited young man was even more boring than usual. "It's a fact," he said with pride, "that people often take me for a member of the Guards."

His pretty companion, wasn't impressed. "Really," she drawled. "Shin—railway—mud—or black?"

"My father has influenza all the time." "Doesn't he know that whisky is good for influenza?" "Yes, that's why he has it all the time."

A Welshman who was very proud of his bass voice was describing a wonderful dream he'd had.

"I was in a mighty choir," he said, "5,000 sopranos, 5,000 altos, 5,000 tenors—all singing together double forte."

"It must have been wonderful," said the listener. "But what about the basses?"

"That was it," said the dreamer. Suddenly the conductor stopped the choir and, turning to me, said: "Not quite so loud in the bass, please, Mr. Jones!"

The shepherd's daughter was going to marry a town-dweller. Wishing to make her father look smart at the ceremony, she got him to agree to wear a hat. The shepherd went into a store. Clerk: "What size, please?" Shepherd: "I don't know." Clerk: "We'll try a six and a half first."

Shepherd: "Six and a half be hanged. I wear a 16 collar, and I know my head is bigger than my neck."

Farmer: "Let me tell you, my friend, that horse knows as much as I do."

Friend: "Well, don't tell anybody else; you might want to sell him some day."

The Kansas City Star got in trouble a short time ago through switching headlines. On the same day the highly respected wife of the Kansas City mayor passed away, and the city's oldest and ugliest ice house burned. Unfortunately the heading over the passing of the good lady read "Another Eyesore Gone."

"Johnson is so conceited." "Yes, on his last birthday he sent a telegram of congratulations to his mother!"

"Pilots can do anything a bird can do nowadays," boasted the armstrong young man.

"There's one thing, they can't do like a bird," said his friend. "Oh, and what's that?"

"Sing sweetly while sitting on a barbed-wire fence."

Schoolboy Bowls 450 Score While Playing Hooky

TORONTO.—A Toronto schoolboy of 13 bowled himself into trouble recently. If he hadn't gone out and rolled 12 consecutive strikes for a perfect score of 450 in a five-pin game with a chum, his mother probably would never have known he played hooky from school.

His sin found him out when the manager of the bowling alley phoned the boy's home to get his age. "That's how I found out he wasn't at school," said his mother.

The boy, William Mills, has an average of 225 in the suburban East York Men's League in which he bowls and his best previous string of strikes was seven or eight in a row.

Toronto bowling authorities said they believe he is the youngest bowler in Canada to get a perfect five-pin score.

Prince Rupert To Have Great Industry

The Vancouver Province says: Prince Rupert, which was described in the Legislature as a "neglected city," is to have a great industry.

The Provincial Government has persuaded the Celanese Corporation of America to establish a plant on Watson Island, eight miles from the city, and to spend $15,000,000 on buildings and equipment. Approximately 1,000 men will be employed in the woods and the mill.

An interesting feature of the bargain is the corporation's undertaking to maintain the forest area allotted to it in perpetuity.

NECESSARY TO FILL OUT FORM TO GET U.S. MONEY

OTTAWA.—The Foreign Exchange Control Board said Canadians drawing any United States money from Canadian banks now had to fill out a form.

Previously a Canadian going to the U.S. on a visit could draw up to $100 in U.S. currency without any formalities. Any additional "reasonable amount" could be obtained by getting a permit from a bank.

The board said the new step had been taken because it had been found that some persons were going from bank to bank, drawing up to $100 from each so that their final total was well beyond the $100 limit.

SHIP DESIGNED TO MEET EMERGENCIES

The Cunard White Star liner Queen Elizabeth, actually a "ship within a ship," has two bottoms—an inner and outer—with an intervening space of nearly six feet divided into numerous watertight compartments. This construction was devised as a precaution against just such mishaps as her recent grounding near Southampton.

Peanuts were known as far back as 850 B.C.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

CENTURY OF PROGRESS

By M. J. COLLINS

DAD and I were thinning out turnips in the turnip patch near the line fence between Old Man Murphy's place and ours.

"Now I wonder what's up?" Dad said with surprise as he leaned on his hoe and looked across the field towards the Murphy place. Two cars were driving up the Murphy's lane. Of course this was a long time ago so you know what the cars were like—high touring cars, model T Fords.

We went on with our hoeing and after a while one of the cars drove away. Shortly after that Old Man Murphy hurried across the fields towards us.

"Bought me a car, Tom," he said, clambering over the rail fence.

"A car?" Dad exclaimed, as if we'd never even noticed them driving up the lane. "What do you want with one of those things? You don't know the first thing about them."

"Nothin' to it," George Murphy said boastfully. "This is the century of progress, us farmers got to keep up with it."

"Sounds like the salesman was stringing you," Dad said dryly. "What else did he tell you?"

"Got her all writ down," Old Man Murphy continued enthused. "All I got to do is follow what it says. Can't make a mistake driving it. 'C'mon over and see it," he invited.

"I think I will," Dad accepted, throwing his hoe down between the ridges. "Let's go, Rick, maybe we'll get around to buying one some day."

"What did you pay for it, George?" he asked as we headed towards the Murphy place.

"Well—she cost a pretty penny, yessir, a pretty penny! But don't think she's not worth it. Seven hundred dollars, every cent of it."

The youngest Murphy girl was out sort of fondling the car and cooing over it, at least that's the nearest way to describe it, when we arrived.

"Moose, it's high!" Dad looked at it with his eyebrows. "I'd be afraid the wind would blow it over."

I got in the front seat to have a good look at things but Maggie Murphy gave me such dirty looks that I got out again.

"Let's see," Old Man Murphy had dug a sheet of paper out of his pocket. "You push in this, pull out that, advance the spark and gas—what does advance mean, Tom?"

"Pull them down," Dad answered. "Step on this—and that's all there is to it. Want to go for a ride?" he offered. "I'm going out in the hay field and drive around to get the hang of it."

Dad shook his head. "Go ahead, we'll wait." That stopped me from saying I'd go.

Old Man Murphy got in. "Well, here goes!" He grinned.

I was watching everything he did. With a rear the car leaped into sudden motion, kicking up dirt and gravel. George Murphy looked more surprised than anyone. The car lurched out into the field and roared around it. As he went by he yelled something unintelligible at us.

"Well," Dad said sitting down on the edge of the Murphy verandah. "Looks like Old George has got the hang of it."

He whizzes by again and yells at us, we waved gaily back. Everytime he went by he yelled. A gust of wind from the car hit us and Dad fairly pined on it.

"Good gosh, Old George has lost the instructions!"

The car went roaring by again with Dad George hanging on for dear life. "Turn the key off," Dad roared but the car was making so much noise I don't think George could have heard Gabriel blow his trumpet even if he'd been sittin' in the back seat.

Around and round went the car, faster and faster, swaying and rolling like a thing possessed.

"Stop the dam thing! Stop it!" Old George roared at the top of his voice. Maggie became so excited that she jumped up and down like she was standing on a hornet's nest.

Crash! The car went through the rail fence and into our turnip patch. Look after Maggie! Dad shouted as he sprang across the field.

She was out cold and as heavy as a log. I dashed into the house and got a dipper of water and soused her. Boy, she came to in a hurry and took a nasty swipe at me. If it had of connected it would have knocked me into the middle of next week.

"Oh, my poor, poor father," she sobbed scrambling to her feet.

SAVED BY DOGS FROM BEAR'S FANGS—But for the timely assistance of his two faithful dogs, Joe Joice of Canals, Alta., might have been killed by a wounded and enraged bear. Joice was out hunting in the bush country around his home recently when the dogs suddenly discovered a bear in his den, apparently just awakened from his winter nap. Joice shot the bear four times but somehow failed to get in a fatal shot. The enraged animal jumped out of his den and headed straight for Joice. Unable to reload in a hurry, Joice started to run. But he was wearing snowshoes and tripped. In a flash the bear was upon him, biting the man's right leg, his left thigh, his left arm and mauling him badly. Joice screamed and the dogs rushed to the rescue, sinking their teeth into the bear's hind legs. The bear let go his victim, jumped over him and ran off with the dogs in pursuit. Although bleeding freely, Joice managed to make his way about a mile and a half to the camp of a friend.

Dad came back helping Old George. He looked more than a little pale around the gills. He kept clutching at his chest and moaning. "Oh, my heart! Oh, my heart!"

We got him into the house, he had aged ten years. Maggie flitted away and got his favorite medicine—a small glass—that helped his heart.

"How d'you feel now, George?" Dad asked.

"I'm a little better now," he said cautiously. "That—that deathtrap!" He shook his fist in the direction of the car. "Hitch up the team, Tom, we'll haul it up on the threshing-floor, I'm through with that!"

George called the Ford several names and the name car certainly wasn't mentioned once.

"It's sure some contraption," Dad said but he made no move to go and get the horses. "Take a brave man to handle one of them."

Old George swelled up at that. "Yes, sir. A brave man."

"But I wouldn't be surprised if it cut about twenty years off a man's life," Dad added slyly. That made Old George clutch at his heart and Maggie did a little more fitting.

"Want to buy it, Tom? It's in your turnip patch," Old Man Murphy suddenly suggested.

Father shook his head. "I haven't got the nerve to drive it, George."

"I'm an old man, Tom," George pleaded and right there as far as he was concerned the century of progress slipped into reverse.

With just the right shade of reluctance father let George talk him into buying the car. I didn't say a word. I knew what Dad was up to. He finally said he'd buy it and got it for three hundred dollars less than Murphy had paid for it.

As we headed back towards our turnip patch Dad was pleased with himself. "Never know what'll happen when you're hoeing turnips, eh son?"

1 cup cocoa
¾ cup sugar
½ cup corn syrup
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ cups cold water
½ teaspoon vanilla
Combine cocoa, sugar, syrup, and salt in saucepan. Add water slowly and place over low flame, stirring until smooth; then boil gently 3 minutes, stirring constantly. Add vanilla. Turn into jar; cover tightly. Keep in refrigerator. Makes about 2 cups syrup. Serve hot or cold as sauce or use in making delicious cocoa drinks. This syrup may be made using 1 to 1½ cups sugar instead of sugar and corn syrup.

To make cold drinks, use 2 tablespoons syrup to 1 cup milk.

TURKEY CONTRIBUTED TULIP TO EUROPE

The tulip was first introduced into Europe from Turkey in the sixteenth century. After 1634 an outbreak of tulip growing in Holland, called "tulipomania", made the Dutch famous exporters of bulbs. Sometimes as much as $5,000 was paid for a single bulb at that time. Now we can have more perfect blooms for a little work and a few cents.

Prospects Of New War Is Remote

OTTAWA.—After consulting various factors with the unemotional logic of the military analyst, one of the higher officers involved in Canada's defence planning estimated that the odds were "100-1 against any devastating air assault on high priority targets on the North American continent within the next 10 years."

In an interview setting out his own personal conclusions, Col. W. W. Goforth, retiring deputy director of defence research, said he felt that odds against a major war would start at 200-1 against in 1947, decline steadily until 1961-62 and would give away to a steady lessening of tension and risk after 1962.

Col. Goforth is returning to private business in Toronto after being the right hand man of Dr. O. M. Solandt, director-general of defence research, who sanctioned his statements.

"INVASION" WIRE COMING TO CANADA

TAPLOW, Buckinghamshire, England.—The "pyramid", 50,000 tons of barbed wire prepared for the invasion of Europe and which lay rusting for seven years, are going to Canada.

But Victor Hardwood, who purchased the wire from the British Government and accepted the overseas offer, has had his troubles converting his investment.

He originally intended to have the wire melted into steel ingots, but Britain had no presses sufficiently powerful. When the Canadian purchaser showed up, so did innumerable shipping transport problems. Dock workers and stevedores demanded "dirt" and "bending" money for handling the wire. The obstacles now have been surmounted.

Backache?

Backache is a friendly warning from Nature—urging you to do something about it at once. It's the same when your shoulder is painful, or your joints become stiff. When other folks have had these complaints, many have got relief by taking Kruschen. Kruschen helps because it is a combination of several mineral salts which aid sluggish organs of elimination thus helping to remove the causes of painful backache and rheumatic pains. Health improves and vigor returns. So give Kruschen a trial in your own case. Start today and for the next month take Kruschen regularly. Simply take a small morning dose of Kruschen in tea, coffee or hot water. At all Drugists: 25c and 75c.

The man who directs the extension of Canada's northern agricultural frontiers has been honored by the Geographic Board of Canada which recently gave his name to this Yukon mountain—Mount Archibald.

Shown here are the 8400-foot peak and Dr. E. S. Archibald, Director, Experimental Farms Service, Dominion Department of Agriculture, for whom it was named.

farms and stations, 13 sub-stations, four laboratories, 155 illustration stations and 52 district experiment sub-stations. In recent years, the Experimental Farms service has been expanded by the establishment of experimental sub-stations in both the Yukon and Northwest Territories for the study of northern agriculture.

Just add a little baking powder to the mixture for meringues. This prevents them from falling in.

T. B. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. What is your opinion of the value of the sun lamp in the treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis?

A. The sun lamp or ultraviolet ray apparently has no direct benefit upon the pulmonary tuberculosis. It does seem to have a beneficial effect upon some of the complications, such as intestinal or laryngeal tuberculosis. However, one must not forget the effect of the ultraviolet ray treatments upon the general health, and in this way the tuberculosis may be benefited.

Q. What is tuberculin?
A. Tuberculin is made from tubercle bacilli which have been killed by heat or other means. It may consist of the bacilli themselves or extracts of the tubercle bacilli, or both.

Tuesday forenoon, the pupils and teachers marched to the Community hall to view several films shown by the RCMP as part of an educational program being conducted by the police forces of Canada and the U.S. Const. Hobbs of the local detachment spoke briefly outlining the purpose of the showing of the movies. He stated that young folks should consider the police as their best friend and not as a "Bogey" man lurking around the corners ready to grab them. He told of instances where parents frightened children by telling them that "the police will get you if you don't go to sleep, etc., etc." This was all wrong and did not make the life of an RCMP any happier. The police were sworn to do a duty but not as a "bogey" man. Films were shown of the rigorous training of an RCMP at Regina before being assigned police work in different parts of Canada. Other interesting films were shown of forest preservation and prevention of fires, and the celebrated film "Northwest Passage" taken at the rim of the Arctic, which took 28 months from Vancouver to Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, depicting an historic trip of the RCMP patrol boat during the war. Another film showing safety measures in driving and handling motor vehicles were timely, indeed.

The Camrose Lutheran college choir under the direction of Prof. Maarken paid their annual visit to Viking last Sunday afternoon and were greeted by a large audience in the Community hall that enjoyed the inspirational songs and choruses sung by this youthful choir of 45 voices. Two local boys, Johnnie Lefsrud and Stanley Halso took prominent parts in several of the numbers. Johnnie conducted the ladies chorus and the men's chorus. The two boys were members of the college male quartette, and Stanley sang a duet with a young lady student from Bardo. The Lutheran ladies served lunch in the basement of the church after the concert. The choir travelled by bus and left here for an evening engagement at Ryley, and is also entered in the musical festival at Edmonton this week.

Saturday, May 24th, is being celebrated as a full holiday throughout the dominion. All business places and stores are required by law will be closed.

J. W. Stambaugh of Bruce, president of the provincial Liberal association, was in town Saturday, drumming interest in the Liberal convention to be held in Edmonton June 24th and 25th.

Mentioning sports days, several towns have already decided on dates, Irma June 9th, and Holden June 11th. If Viking is going to hold an annual sports day it is not too soon for the powers that be to get together and see what kind of program can be arranged. Only six weeks to July 1st.

Talk is being revived of a covered skating rink and a meeting has been arranged for Wednesday, May 28th, in Hilliker's hall to discuss the project and see what can be done to start the ball rolling. A most ambitious project to say the least. It would be a fine thing for the present and coming generations in this community and district. Other towns are mooting the same idea.

On June 5th the ratepayers will be called upon to put their approval on the by-law to borrow $7,500 for sidewalk and other improvements. The Council wants the privilege of borrowing this sum but will be spent only as materials are obtainable. No materials, no borrowing.

Reports are that work has commenced on the Viking-Hanna highway just north of Killam and are coming this way. Here's hoping it is more than a rumor.
